

First Baptist Church of Torrance
 Rev. J. Whitfield Green, pastor.
 The Ladies' Bible class won out in the contest with the Men's Fellowship class, and on Thursday night, March 6, the men have to furnish the cats. Mr. Andem has charge of the feed, and no woman will take any part whatever in its preparation.
 Oh, by the way, don't fail to hear Mr. Green next Sunday. He will preach on "In School for God" at the morning service, and his theme will be "On Picket Duty" at the song service in the evening. Old Satan has no place in the home church. Mr. Green has him flanked on all sides and—oh, you can come next Sunday night and see and hear for yourself. You are more than welcome. Good gospel preaching and a lively evangelistic song service.

Sunday school, 9:45. Morning service, 11. B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p. m. Evening song service, 7:30.
 Wednesday evening, prayer meeting.
Methodist Church
 Dr. Morris will speak next Sunday morning on "The Philosophy of Prayer" and Sunday evening on "The Unanswerable Question." Sunday school at 9:45. Epworth league at 6:45 p. m. The public services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
 The Epworth league is showing a fine interest. There was a splendid attendance of young people last Sunday evening.
 A new piano has been purchased through the kindness of the Ladies' Aid. This provides for the primary department. The primary chairs have also arrived, and these rooms will be nicely fitted up for the growing department.

 The Men's club will meet next Tuesday evening. Don't forget it, men.
 Did you ever attend a prayer meeting? The Bible lesson for next Wednesday evening will be the fourteenth chapter of St. John. Come out and spend a few minutes with us.
 We are approaching the Easter-tide. All Christians should cultivate a worshipful spirit, especially in these days. Our church doors stand wide open.

Christian Church
 American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent Bible school.
 A glorious rain we have had, and in very gratitude we should be at the place of worship next Sunday. It was surely a great blessing to the country, but do we appreciate the blessings and benefits we are continually receiving from our Heavenly Father? Let us show it by being faithful next Sunday.
 Bible school at 10 a. m. Communion and sermon at 11 a. m. Preaching services again in the evening at 7:30 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend all the services of the church. Bring a friend with you.

Central Evangelical Church
 "Experiencing Religion" will be the theme of the morning sermon at 11 o'clock. "Money Out of Circulation" will be the evening subject.
 Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m.
 Midweek meeting on Wednesday evening; orchestra rehearsal on Tuesday evening; choir on Thursday evening.
 Excellent music at all services. The public is invited to all services.

Catholic Service
 Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock in Catholic hall.

"SHEIKS" VISIT NORTH
 George Probert Jr. and "Booby" Vonderahe have returned from a visit to Oakland, and report a wonderful time. George went up to see his "sweetie," and "Booby's" got him one spotted, so they'll probably make another trip in the near future.

Mrs. Daniel Barnard was a guest Saturday of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Ramsay, of Eagle Rock.

New Phone Number of The Herald is 200.
